

S.C. 28-CAMP, 2

SOUTH CAROLINA

State

Kershaw (28)

County

CAMDEN

Town or Vicinity

105

3P

3d

Kershaw County Courthouse (now Masonic Hall, 13-9)

Structure

SW. corner Broad and King Sts. Stucco on brick, two stories, prostyle temple form, tetrastyle portico, fluted greek Doric columns, wooden entablature, pediment, antae across rear end and at corners, axial granite stair to second floor of portico and courtroom, first story vaulted longitudinal central hall, offices each side. Built 1826; original six sandstone Ionic columns replaced by four stucco Doric columns with cast-iron echinus, granite abacus, 1847; interior alterations, 1847. Robert

(over)

Form 10-444 (2/62)

TORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

F.N-4

Mills, architect. This was third Kershaw County Courthouse. 10 sheets (1934, plans, elevations, sections, details); 2 ext. photos (1934), 1 int. photo (1934);
3 data pages (1936, including description by Mills).

Card prepared Oct. 1975.

Ref: Statistics of S.C., Robert
Mills, 1826.
